SKYSCRAPER STRENGTH and SAVINGS in your G.V.T. HOME

THE Gordon-Van Tine Plan-Cut method enables thousands of home builders to effect enormous savings. Letters from cities, suburbs and the country tell of savings that run from $500 to $2000 and up. There is no secret about our plan. It is generally known that 97% of the lumber used in home building must have one or more saw cuts. Statistics show that two and four-tenths saw-cuts are the average for each piece used. Hand labor costs from 80c to $1.25 per hour. Plan-Cut machines do it in one-tenth to one-twenty-fifth of the time.

If you have ever seen a skyscraper under construction you must have noticed that there is no cutting of steel beams on the job. All the measuring, cutting, and boring holes for rivets were done at the mills. It is this modern method of construction which the Gordon-Van Tine Plan-Cut system brings to you.

Instead of the steel, the medium is lumber. The methods are the same in principle. The pieces are cut to exact lengths at the mills on speedy, economical machines which enable two men to do the work of 20. These come marked to correspond with our easy-to-follow plans, just like steel for skyscrapers.

Structural Strength— The Product of Accuracy

If Plan-Cut construction did not save a penny in time or lumber, the results in strength and accuracy are so far superior to the "cut and try" method as to make Gordon-Van Tine homes the unquestioned choice. Again, the amazing thing is that you do not pay more for Plan-Cut—you save by our wholesale, mills-to-you prices.

Accuracy is the result of mathematically correct calculations by skilled architects, and machine cuttings by power driven saws, set by steel gauges exact to one-sixteenth of an inch.

Your home, built of such exactly-cut joists, studding, rafters, etc., has built into it the priceless quality of structural strength—the staunchness of a well-knit, solid, tight-built home—the quality which guarantees a long-lived home.

SAVE TIME. LABOR AND MONEY

Boring and chiseling for locks by hand costs nearly $1.00 per door. By machine we save you $17.50 on this job alone.

It takes a carpenter an average of 54 hours to frame a roof by hand. We save you over $65.00 here.

Cutting out openings for windows and doors—ripping long pieces by hand costs heavily. We save you $85.00 here.

MODERN METHODS APPLIED TO HOME BUILDING have lowered cost of construction 33⅓%

BY ACTUAL count, there are 2940 hand-saw cuts made in preparing the lumber-yard lumber for the framing of an average five-room bungalow. In a Plan-Cut home every one of these 2940 hand-saw cuts is done by machinery at the mills! When you consider that the carpenter on the job must also take time to select the right kind of board, measure it and mark it and then saw it—you can realize the tremendous savings you make by having this work done in huge quantities at our mills on specially-built power machines.

Our Plan-Cut system makes it possible to build three houses during the same time it takes to build two under the old, wasteful, hand-saw way. Owners, progressive contractors, and carpenters are taking advantage of our modern system in all sections of the U. S. A., and from actual experience say they save $500 to $2000.

Plan-Cut construction is standard—just like any carpenter or handy man is accustomed to, only stronger, more substantial. There is nothing new to learn, estimate or study. The only difference is, we saw the lumber in one-tenth the time and save the waste.

More than three-fourths of our customers build all or part of their Plan-Cut homes themselves, and with wonderful success. Surely this is ample proof of the remarkable accuracy and simplicity of the Gordon-Van Tine system.

Building the Plan-Cut way, you employ the same machine production methods to save for you in building your home that have cut costs and revolutionized the manufacture of everything we use today from motor cars to skyscrapers.

The Savings of Machine Sawing
One Machine Does the Work of Ten Men!

You get machine-method savings in every other thing you buy—from a newspaper to a motor car. Plan-Cut brings you these same savings in your home.

Plan-Cut material comes ready for immediate erection. All small pieces are bundled at the mills for you. There is no hunting for pieces on the job.

PROFIT BY OUR MODERN METHODS

Machine housing of stairs saves you $35.00 to $40.00—and gives you a better job.

Our case work is shipped glued up. You save $15.00 to $30.00 here.

All millwork is machine sanded—ready to paint. Saves you $35.00 to $50.00.

Today one man cuts more lumber at Gordon-Van Tine's great plants than 10 used to cut by hand-saw.

Gentlemen:

We are now living in our Mason "B" Home, which we bought from you last summer. I was able, with the help of my sons, to do all the work but the plumbing and wiring, and, as a result, saved over $1500.

We shall be more than glad to show anyone through our home at any time and explain to them how we saved by being our own contractors.

Gordon-Van Tine Company,
Davenport, Iowa.
Gentlemen:

Having built one of your homes on what you term the Owner-Builder Plan, I wish to take this time to tell you that it is without doubt the best way a working man who can utilize his time instead of cash can get a home.

With the help of my wife and daughters, we performed 1800 hours labor. We are proud of our home and know that, in addition to the money saved through performing our own labor, we saved money on the price of the material.

Very truly yours,

Andy Schorley

You can build your own home!

SAVE by Sys

They save architects' fees, contractors' profits, and the cost of paid labor. You can be the master with our system of staunch construction.

However, if you cannot build yourself, or do not care to, you will find that your contractor can save you hundreds of dollars by building the Gordon-Van Tine way. We have contractors who specialize in Plan-Cut homes. Let us refer you to a contractor in your vicinity.

$2,000 Over 200,000 our Satisfied Customers tem —You Are the Master

Building Instruction Book

— the most complete ever written.

It was prepared by the same experts who drew the plans themselves. Just as the plans show where a piece goes, the instructions tell you in clear, simple language how to put it there, and every point is illustrated with a clear drawing, all labelled. The instructions start right out in the beginning with the staking out of the foundation lines and tell you how deep to dig the foundation, how wide and deep to make the trenches for the footings, the proportions of sand, gravel and cement for the concrete. Explain how to set the joists and spike them in place, how to lay the sub-flooring, how to place the studs, and the rest of the frame. Framing your roof, ordinarily the most complicated of all operations, in a Plan-Cut home is simple and easy because all parts are cut to fit perfectly at the mill.

Your instructions cover every step—lathing, plastering, how to hang windows and doors, how to put up the cut-to-fit stairs, how to nail finish—clear through to the last coat of paint—not one single step is left out.

"Notched Plate"

Guarantees Accurate Fit

Among the outstanding features which save time and insure perfect construction of Plan-Cut Homes, are notched plates. Both bottom and top plates in all Gordon-Van Tine homes have notches cut in them where each stud is to set. These notches are cut by machines which are absolutely accurate to 1/64th of an inch. When the accurately cut studs are set in place, nailed and wall sections raised square and nailed up, the house is absolutely true. All parts must fit accurately and exactly. Workmen make surprising records for speed, unheard of in hand-saw building. They finish your home and are gone in a fraction of the usual time.

Plan-Cut Saves Time and Labor

Under our Plan-Cut system all the material for door and window openings is bundled. Cut accurately at our huge mills, they come to you all marked, packed and strapped together. When an opening is to be framed, simply take the bundle marked as indicated on our easy-to-follow blueprint and put it together as shown. All the parts are there so there is no time lost in hunting for pieces. Thus time saved by cutting at the mills is preserved for you during construction. Plan-Cut construction goes ahead unbelievably fast. That is why customers in every part of the country write us about making big savings, usually $500 to $2000 and up.

The Butler—Five Rooms and Bath

For Above Price We Furnish Material for This Home Described Below—Freight Paid to Your Station

THE quiet beauty of shingled walls is nowhere better expressed than in this attractive bungalow. The happy porch treatment and the overhanging roof give the Butler a snug, informal appearance that is very desirable. The porch can easily be screened in to provide a splendid extra room for the summer months.

The Living Room is 16 feet 3 inches by 12 feet 3 inches—an unusually large room for a bungalow of this size. When you consider that it has four windows and a glazed front door you will appreciate that it will be well supplied with sunshine and summer ventilation. Note the door opening into the front bedroom.

The Dining Room: A wide cased opening leads into the dining room, size 10 feet by 12 feet 3 inches. The twin window supplies abundant light. A door leads from this room to the rear bedroom and a swinging door opens into the kitchen.

The Kitchen: We especially recommend the kitchen because of its compactness. The arrangement of the rear entrance to the kitchen is also worthy of attention. Three steps lead down from the kitchen to the grade landing and from this point the cellar stairs descend to the basement. This permits an outside exit from the basement without going through the kitchen. The twin windows supply ample light.

The Bedrooms are very well arranged. The space that is ordinarily given over to a hall in this type of home, is here used for valuable closet room. Note that both bedrooms have a connecting door to the bathroom, and a window in two walls for light and cross ventilation.

The Bathroom has one window and a towel cabinet.

THE Douglas is an excellent plan for the builder who has a large family and desires a bungalow instead of a two-story home. The broad lines of this bungalow and the sweeping porch beam give it a much desired air of comfort and hospitality.

Special "Low Cost" Specifications

For Smaller Plan-Cut Gordon-Van Tine Homes

THE homes shown on the next pages are sold under special "Low Cost" specifications shown below. For those who are seeking a good home, well built, of excellent material, we recommend these "Low Cost" Homes.

The principal difference in the specifications, and the big reason for the low prices is that gutters, downspouts, and sub-floors are omitted. Jap-A-Top Slate Surfaced Roofing furnished instead of 5 to 2, 100% edge grain shingles, $\frac{7}{8}$ " outside casings instead of $1\frac{1}{8}$ ", inside trim has no backband, no chair rail for bathroom, no sash lifts, two coats of paint and varnish instead of three, varnish in place of white enamel, etc. Structurally these houses are just as well-built as regular Gordon-Van Tine homes. The same lumber and just as much of it is furnished for the frame work of the house, and it is cut and fitted just as carefully. The differences are in the details mentioned.

The EDISON

HERE is a distinctly individual little cottage with dignified and neat exterior that you cannot help liking.

The living room and dining room are joined in a happy combination making one large room in place of two cramped ones, always a more desirable arrangement. The two windows and the handsome front door assure cheery sunshine and on hot days, cool breezes.

To secure a well-lighted, compact and convenient kitchen is one secret in home building. Here you have an ideal kitchen which is not only pleasant for the housewife to work in, but sufficient space is provided for a kitchen cabinet or work table.

The door at the rear of the kitchen opens onto the three steps leading to the grade door, and to the basement stairs.

The center hall with the handy closet so cleverly built in the wall leads to the bath and the rear chamber. Both bedrooms are well lighted and pleasant rooms with an abundance of floor space.

The SYLVAN

IT is especial attention to straight lines that places this bungalow so far out of the ordinary.

The living room and dining room can be considered together, for their wide eased opening makes practically one large room of the two. The large twin window in the dining room gives an ample supply of light and air.

The kitchen is a splendid work room well arranged for the usual kitchen equipment. The glazed door between kitchen and entry is another convenient feature.

The basement stairs descend from this entry. There is a well planned refrigerator space here also. The basement is intended to extend under the entire house.

The fact that there is no room taken for an inner hall in this bungalow means that the bedrooms are larger than is frequently the case, and at the same time they are both accessible to the kitchen without it being necessary for one to pass through the living room and dining room. The closets are ample, and the bath room convenient.

Paint: Unless otherwise instructed, we will ship cream for body paint and white for trim.

The PILGRIM

OR the purchaser who wants to make every dollar buy a dollar's worth of usable, livable home, this plan will have a distinct appeal. Its very simplicity is chief charm.

As you look at the plan notice how every partition does a double duty, how every bit of space is conveyed, and how there are no "lost corners" of unusable space. Inspect the kitchen particularly closely. Notice the position of the sink under the window where light and air are plentiful—see how the ice box is placed where it is instantly accessible, yet close to the steps, where it can be iced without muss or confusion. The kitchen can be entered from both living room and rear chamber.

The range between the two doors is so situated that it helps heat both living room and back bedroom.

Note the fine proportions of the rooms, the splendid ventilation, the wall space for furniture, the closets, etc. There isn't an inch, or a cent, wasted.

Paint: Unless otherwise instructed we will ship tan paint for the body, and white paint for the trim of this home.

The VERNON

THIS is a most attractive home at a price which stamps it as a real bargain. The attractive porch, wide over-hanging eaves and open cornice give to this little home an air of comfort and hospitality rarely found in homes costing as little as this one.

The arrangement of the interior is all that could be desired. Comfort, convenience, and coziness were the designer's aim. The front door leads into the well lighted living room. This is connected to the dining room by a wide cased opening, giving each room the benefit of the size and spaciousness of the other room. At the back is the kitchen, which is provided with two windows and an outside door. Also a door leads down to the inside cellar-way from the kitchen.

Note that the bedrooms are connected by a little hall which leads to the bath and gives access to the rest of the house through the dining room. This makes for privacy and quiet not usual in a house of these dimensions.

Paint: Unless otherwise instructed we will ship brown paint for the walls and white paint for the trim.

Splendid Five-Room Home

The AVON "A" and AVON "B"

HERE is a splendid five-room home at a price which makes it an exceptional bargain. It may be had in two sizes—the "B" plan being two feet wider and two feet longer. Note the wide porch sheltered under the main roof of the house and the impressive dormer, which adds so much to the appearance of this home.

The floor plan has been excellently worked out—the careful planning may be seen at a glance. The homekeeper's duties are easily attended to in this home. Many of the little refinements usually found only in expensive homes have been incorporated in this design.

Material is all high grade, being furnished in strict accordance with "Low Cost" specifications. This design will give you a comfortable, livable and cozy home for the years to come.

Paint: Unless otherwise instructed we will ship gray paint for the walls and white paint for the trim.

THIS is a practical home of ample size, equally well suited for a farm tenant house or for a town home.

The living room and dining room are both very cozy. They have been planned with the same care that is given to these rooms in a much more pretentious house.

The kitchen, because of its convenient arrangement, deserves particular mention.

Opposite to the living room there are three splendid bedrooms. Each has two windows and each has a closet of its own.

You will note that we include basement stairs and sash sufficient for a basement of house size. The placing of the basement stairs directly opposite the rear door affords the advantage of both an inside and outside stairway.

Paint: Unless otherwise instructed, we will ship Lemont stone paint for the body and white for the trim of this home.

Poultry House No. 464

No. 464 is the Missouri Type straw loft house. It gets its name from the fact that it was designed by the Poultry Department of the College of Agriculture, University of Missouri. This house is widely used in every part of the country. No other house is so well suited to meet all climatic conditions. Since it is square it is the most economical per unit of floor space. Windows in all four sides eliminate damp corners which breed vermin and disease. The open front provides the most simple and efficient ventilation known. The straw loft keeps the house dry and insulates it against cold in winter and heat in summer. This Plan-Cut Poultry House is easy to build because all difficult sawing is done at the factory. Complete plans furnished. We furnish all material including lumber, millwork, hardware, fire resisting slate surfaced roll roofing, paints and nails. All guaranteed satisfactory.
